

YOUNG AT ART

Youth Art Exhibit at
The ART MUSEUM of Eastern Idaho
March 25 - April 3

Join the excitement when the Art Museum's Young at Art Exhibit opens on March 25. With our gallery walls filled with vibrant art from elementary and junior high school students, we celebrate the voices of young artists. This annual exhibit is a tremendous opportunity for students to share their art with the community and celebrate the arts in regional schools. The opening reception for the Young at Art Exhibit is Saturday, March 27 from 11 am – 4 pm when students and their families can tour the exhibit and participate in creating a larger-than-life wall sculpture.

SCHEDULE FOR PARTICIPANTS

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

Each school is invited to select 36 pieces of outstanding original artwork to display in the Young at Art Show. Only one entry per student will be allowed.

Grades K through 9 are eligible.

Submitted artwork should not exceed 14-in x 18-in. and should be presented with a black mat or mounted on a piece of black construction paper.

Any two-dimensional art medium is welcome.

No glassed or framed art will be accepted.

Each piece of artwork must have an exhibit label attached to the back that lists the student name, grade, school, and classroom teacher.

When delivered, art from each school must be accompanied by a list of the participating artists, including their names, grades, schools, and classroom teachers.

Art must be delivered between Tuesday, March 2 and Saturday, March 13 to the Art Museum during regular operating hours, 11 am - 5 pm.
